Runes of Dawn
TR Custom Level by Sponge

First of all, thank you for downloading this level!

Story:

English:

Lara Croft has decided to spend some time by the seaside. Some of the locals there have a lot of yarn to tell about hidden treasure that is supposedly right at the coast where Lara resides. Indeed, Anglo-Saxon remnants are scattered throughout the area, so Lara is excited to do some exploring - until she suddenly realises that she must have dropped the keys to the house in the toilet! Help Lara search the house for spare keys and explore the caves and tombs around the area.
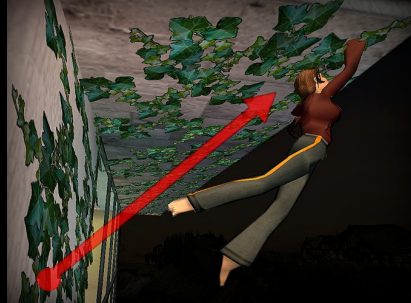

Deutsch:

Lara Croft hat sich dazu entschlossen etwas Zeit an der See zu verbringen. Die Anwohner dort haben viel Seemannsgarn zu erzählen über verborgene Schätze gleich da wo Lara wohnt. Tatsächlich sind anglosächsische Überbleibsel in der Gegend verstreut, also freut sich Lara schon auf eine Entdeckungstour – bis sie feststellt, dass ihr die Hausschlüssel in die Toilette gefallen sind! Hilf Lara das Haus nach Ersatzschlüsseln abzusuchen und die Höhlen und Gräber der Umgebung zu erkunden.

The Level:

New Moves:

I have fiddled with some animations of Lara so she moves differently...

Lara can jump off a climbable wall and grab the opposite ledge or a monkey swing.

Press the jump button and action to do so.

Audios:

There are some audios that might be hard to understand due to my jumbled-up accent (sorry about that). Here is a transcript of what the florist has to say:

- Now there's a familiar face! Lara, good morning!

- I'm afraid you're a bit late, if you're here for my award-winning flowers. Miss Murray, well... you know I'm not one to gossip – merely "sharing community wisdom". Anyway, apparently she is going to marry again and I provided her with all the flowers I had. I'm completely out of stock, you see. But, you know what? I've still got one tulip left. It's not blooming yet, but I'll make you a special offer, if you'd like.

- Thanks a lot! The tulip's in the greenhouse, where you can pick it up any time you want. If that's all, I wish a good day. Bye-bye.

Further Information:

This level was built for the aspidetr.com Easter Time project 2017. It was originally released April 14th 2017. This is an overhauled version, featuring a small extra area and more diverse background sounds.

There are 5 SECRETS (Golden Eggs) hidden in the level.

Please just play to enjoy! All new textures and objects in this level were created by me, Sponge, with photographs I took myself. This took a lot of effort and time, so I expect you, the downloader, to respect the work put into this level by not ripping any of the material without my permission. If you're interested in any of the used textures and/ or objects, please feel free to contact me via email (mario_fighter@gmx.net) or private message at forum.laraslevelbase.org (where I use the nickname 'Sponge') and we may talk this over. ^^

September 2017,
